Description of character of service

RadioReverb is for the people of Brighton and Hove. It provides an accessible and accountable community radio service with specific content for under-represented groups. It is a platform for discussion with locally-relevant speech and music programmes.

The service broadcasts:

- Music. The main types of music broadcast over the course of each week are: a broad range of genres.
- Speech: The main types of speech output broadcast over the course of each week are: discussions, current affairs, features on specialist interests, in-depth interviews, sports and other events coverage.
- The service provides locally-produced output¹ for a minimum of 13 hours per day.

The studio is located within the licensed coverage area.

The service provides a range of community benefits (social gain objectives mandated by statute) for the target community, both on-air and off-air, and in doing so, achieves the following objectives:

- the facilitation of discussion and the expression of opinion,
- the provision (whether by means of programmes included in the service or otherwise) of education or training to individuals not employed by the person providing the service, and
- the better understanding of the particular community and the strengthening of links within it.

Members of the target community contribute to the operation and management of the service.

The service has mechanisms in place to ensure it is accountable to its target community.

[March 2007. Revised March 2013; September 2016]

¹ Locally-produced output is output made and broadcast from within the service's licensed coverage area.
