Licence area	Central London (as shown in the licensed coverage area map)
Frequency	104.4 MHz

Description of character of service

Resonance FM is for practising artists and engaged consumers whose interests fall outside the mainstream media. The service promotes under-represented forms of expression and artworks. The station also delivers some multicultural content and programming for under-represented groups.

The service broadcasts:

- Music. The main types of music broadcast over the course of each week are: alternative and experimental music, featuring a range of musical styles.
- Speech: The main types of speech output broadcast over the course of each week are: discussion; alternative news programmes and interviews; literary spoken word.
- The service provides original output¹ for a minimum of 70 hours per week.

The studio is located within the licensed coverage area.

The service provides a range of community benefits (social gain objectives mandated by statute) for the target community, both on-air and off-air, and in doing so, achieves the following objectives:

- the facilitation of discussion and the expression of opinion,
- the provision (whether by means of programmes included in the service or otherwise) of education or training to individuals not employed by the person providing the service, and
- the better understanding of the particular community and the strengthening of links within it.

Members of the target community contribute to the operation and management of the service.

The service has mechanisms in place to ensure it is accountable to its target community.

[January 2006. Revised November 2014; September 2016]

¹ Original output is output that is first produced for and transmitted by the service, and excludes output that was transmitted elsewhere before. Original output can be live or voice-tracked. Repeat broadcasts of original output do not count towards the minimum requirement.
