Description of character of service

Bro Radio is a service focused on the Vale of Glamorgan. It promotes a feeling of social identity and community pride amongst the urban, rural and coastal communities which exist within the county.

Its programming reflects the life of the residents it serves, with a mixture of locally relevant news, information and music during the day, with specialist music and information programming, covering sport, key communities, Welsh Language and specialist music genres during the evening and weekends.

The service broadcasts:

- Music: During daytime programming (Monday – Saturday, 7am – 6pm), Bro Radio broadcasts a mix of today’s new and chart music, alongside music from 1975 to today. During the evenings and weekends, Bro Radio broadcasts specialist music programming, including Rock, Reggae, Classical and Welsh Language music genres.
- Speech: The main types of speech output broadcast over the course of each week are: news, community and travel information, discussions, interviews, sport and local ‘what’s on’ items.
- Over the course of each week, programming is broadcast mostly in English, with some Welsh.
- The service provides original output¹ for a minimum of 84 hours per week.
- The service provides locally-produced output² for a minimum of 91 hours per week.

The studio is located within the licensed coverage area.

The service provides a range of community benefits (social gain objectives mandated by statute) for the target community, both on-air and off-air, and in doing so, achieves the following objectives:

- the facilitation of discussion and the expression of opinion,

¹ Original output is output that is first produced for and transmitted by the service, and excludes output that was transmitted elsewhere before. Original output can be live or voice-tracked. Repeat broadcasts of original output do not count towards the minimum requirement.

² Locally-produced output is any output made and broadcast from within the service’s licensed coverage area. It may include all types of local production.

- the provision (whether by means of programmes included in the service or otherwise) of education or training to individuals not employed by the person providing the service, and
- the better understanding of the particular community and the strengthening of links within it.

Members of the target community contribute to the operation and management of the service.

The service has mechanisms in place to ensure it is accountable to its target community.
