Description of character of service

Angel Radio is for the over-60 age group in Newport, Isle of Wight. The station provides up to date information of relevance to the target community and is responsive to, and inclusive of, older people in the community.

The service broadcasts:

- Music. The main type of music broadcast over the course of each week is: popular and specialist music released between 1900 and 1959.
- Speech. The main types of speech output broadcast over the course of each week are: vintage style radio shows and comedies, local community news, weather and local information, discussion and chat shows, interviews, advice, and listener reminiscences.
- The service provides original output¹ for a minimum of six hours per day.
- The service provides locally-produced output² for a minimum of 13 hours per day.

The studio is located within the licensed coverage area.

The service provides a range of community benefits (social gain objectives mandated by statute) for the target community, both on-air and off-air, and in doing so, achieves the following objectives:

- the facilitation of discussion and the expression of opinion,
- the provision (whether by means of programmes included in the service or otherwise) of education or training to individuals not employed by the person providing the service, and

² Locally-produced output is content which is made and broadcast from within the service's licensed coverage area. It may include all types of local production including repeats and continuous music, as long as it is created anywhere within the licensed coverage area and is not material that is networked from other stations. Content which is made outside the station's licensed coverage area, but edited and broadcast from within the coverage area, does not meet Ofcom's definition of locally-produced output.

- the better understanding of the particular community and the strengthening of links within it.

Members of the target community contribute to the operation and management of the service.

The service has mechanisms in place to ensure it is accountable to its target community.
